It'd be a good idea to fill up the sections we already have cos the website is completely empty. There is no prayer timetable. The Jumma prayer updates are not in there section. The prayer room locations is completely empty. The Local Info section which could be very useful for people in the society is completely empty. And also it'd be nice if we all recieved an email about the events organised by the society.

Assalam Alikoum,

Thank you for your feedback, which I totally agree with. As a webmaster my job was only to provide the platform for publishing information on the website.

The content is the responsibility of the committee members. I have forwarded your views on to the committee.

I am here to help them get through difficulties and issues they may face using the website.

InchaAllah they will manage to devote some time to posting important and usefull information onto the website, as I am well aware of the monsterous task of running a large society as ours.

Wa Salam.
